Practice Areas

M&A, Joint venture, Energy, Infrastructure, International Trade

Yu-Jin Tay is a partner in Mayer Brown's global international arbitration practice. He has practised international arbitration in Paris, London and Washington DC and specialises in international arbitrations arising from M&A, joint venture, energy, infrastructure and general commercial disputes across a broad range of sectors and geographies. Since 2001, he has also had experience advising and representing investors and governments in investment treaty arbitrations. In 2013, he was designated by the Government of Timor-Leste to ICSID's Panels of Arbitrators and Conciliators. In 2011, Mr. Tay was one among few Asian lawyers featured in Global Arbitration Review's global45 under 45 ranking. He is listed annually as leading individual in global legal directories including GAR's International Who's Who of Commercial Arbitration and Arbitration Future Leaders (since 2010 and 2017), Chambers Asia-Pacific and Asia-Pacific Legal 500 (since 2008 in multiple chapters), the Euromoney Guide to the World's Leading Experts in Commercial Arbitration (since 2006) and Benchmark Litigation (ranked Local Disputes Star, 2013).

Arbitral and other ADR experiences

Mr. Tay has sat as sole, presiding and co-arbitrator in SIAC, ICC, LCIA, VIAC and ad-hoc arbitrations. He is a member of various panels of arbitrators including the SIAC, ICSID, KLRCA, KCAB and VIAC. As counsel, Mr. Tay has experience of over 70 arbitrations under the rules of most leading arbitral institutions and in most of the world's significant arbitral seats.
