

ARBITRATOR'S CURRICULUM VITAE

NGHIA, Pham Duy (Mr.)

	Director of the Master's Program in Public Policy, Fulbright University Vietnam Director, Vietnam Institute for International Arbitration Research and Training, adivision of VIAC
	Ho Chi Minh City
	nghia65@gmail.com
	Languages: Vietnamese, English, French, Germany

Practice Areas

Business and Commerce, Arbitration, Macroeconomics

Assoc. Dr. Pham Duy Nghia is a leading scholar of law and governance in Vietnam. He teaches Law and Governance, Public Policy and its Research Methodology.

He has been a lecturer who is major in Economics at Fulbright University since 2009. In 2017, he was invited to participate in Case Law Advisory Council including 12 members by the Supreme People's Court.

He had been a head of department of business law at School of Law, Vietnam National University before. After that, he had become the dean of faculty of law at University of Economics Ho Chi Minh City.

During the transformation of FETP into the Fulbright School of Public Policy and Management – Fulbright University Vietnam, he was an promoter of establishing the Leadership and Management Program – a new major which it has begun enrolling since 2018.

He is also the author of numerous textbooks and scientific publications on legal and administrative issues.

One of his studies focuses on effective governance including the way to increase citizen participation in making policy as well as the way to improve efficiency, government transparency and accountability.

Assoc., PhD. Pham Duy Nghia has many analysis and regular comments on famous Vietnamese newspapers and mass media on topics such as basic rights of citizens, voice, etc. and accountability in governance, institutional quality, the rule of law and access to justice.

He is a Bachelor and Doctor of Law at Leipzig (German). He is also a Fulbright school at School of Law, Harvard University and PhD student at Stanford University.