Dr. Loc was a famous economist and speaker in Vietnam before becoming President of the Vietnam International Arbitration Centre (VIAC). He is an inventive thinker with overall macro-perspectives, practical and creative approaches. Dr. Loc has made significant contributions to the reform, integration, and remuneration of Vietnam's business and investment environment. At the same time, he is actively involved in promoting free trade agreements, trade promotion activities, and large-scale investment at the national level, helping to bring many foreign investment projects to Vietnam and promoting Vietnam's exports abroad, guiding and supporting Vietnamese enterprises and business associations in their international integration.

In addition, Dr. Loc has hosted a number of forums, policy dialogues between the government and enterprise, summits, and important business forums in Vietnam and overseas, with the participation of heads of state, scientists, and top CEOs. In 2006 and 2017, he served as Chairman of the APEC Business Leaders' Summit (APEC CEO Summit).
